

HUMMEL SAILS, BERATING PRESS PER HIS NEPHEW

Kaffenburgh Accompanies Ex-Convict Lawyer to Europe After Strong Tirade.

WILL RESIDE IN PARIS.

First Stop to Be in London, Where He Will Entertain His Acquaintances.

Before sailing for Europe on the Lusitania to-day "Abe" Hummel, through his nephew, "Abe" Hummel, Kaffenburgh, made a tirade against newspapers, Kaffenburgh declaring that his uncle had been hounded by the press of New York.

"Mr. Hummel wishes to say through me that he is done with newspapers for good and all," said the nephew. "The more you do for newspapers the harder they hit you."

"Wouldn't it be better for you to make some denials of the charges made against Hummel?" suggested a reporter. "I want no advice," snapped Kaffenburgh. "I make my living by giving advice, not asking it."

"Don't you find that some trouble, now that you are disbarred from practice?" inquired a man who had stopped to listen to Kaffenburgh's abuse of newspapers.

Hummel did not venture from his cabin, nor did his sister, Mrs. Kaffenburgh, who, with her son, accompanied him to Europe, and the nephew was depended upon to do all the talking. He was still talking when the big turbine swung into the stream and started on her trip across the ocean.

Hummel made known his plans to a few intimate friends last night before he went on the ship. It is said that, on arrival in London, he will be the guest of Teddy Michaels, a theatrical man, at the Savoy Hotel. Later, he will rent a furnished house in London and entertain his friends there.

His next move will be to Paris, where a second house will be secured. A motor trip will follow the season in Paris. Hummel said that when he reached his home on Thursday he received hundreds of messages, letters and cablegrams, some from the Earl of Yarmouth, Mrs. Sembrich, Josephine Jacob and Lillian Russell.

Highly Favorable Clearing House Statement Shows an Increase of $6,759,375.

This week's bank statement, issued to-day, was highly favorable in every respect, all the figures going to show that money is plentiful. An increase of $6,759,375 in the surplus was recorded, the total now being $37,424,450. The report, as issued at the Clearing House, was as follows:

Loans	Decrease	$364,100
Deposits	Increase	10,200,000
Circulation	Decrease	3,000,000
Legal Tenders	Increase	1,250,000
Special Reserve	Increase	1,000,000
Reserve Required	Increase	2,500,000
Surplus	Increase	6,759,375
Ex. U. S. Deposits	Increase	8,500,000

The percentage of actual reserve of the Clearing House banks at the close of business yesterday was 28.5.

The statement of banks and trust companies of Greater New York, not members of the Clearing House, shows that these institutions have aggregated deposits of $48,182,700, total cash on hand $23,600,000 and loans amounting to $775,340,100.

ROBBED HOTEL GOTHAM.

Santo Potachi was arrested to-day at the Hotel Gotham.

Santo has been in America less than a year. As he was leaving the hotel, where he worked as a dish washer, Charles Weiss, another employee, noticed an unusual angularity about his figure, and called the attention of House Detective Walsh to it. Walsh found knives, spoons and forks to the value of $30 tucked away in the dishwasher's pockets.

Santo was weeping when Manager Gus Carl Berger appeared against him in the Yorkville Court, and he wept more violently when he was told that, not having completed his residence of a year in this country, he would probably be deported. He was held in $1,000 bail.

ORIENTAL BANK STEALS A MARCH ON MR. JACKSON

Transfers Its Assets to the Vaults of Metropolitan Trust Company.

PAYMENTS SOON BEGIN.

The Balance Due Clearing House to Be Settled by Next Monday.

With every effort to keep the matter secret, the assets of the Oriental Bank were early to-day transferred to the vaults of the Metropolitan Trust Company, which is under contract to pay off the depositors. This sudden move followed a statement which Clark Williams, State Superintendent of Banks, is said to have made to a reporter yesterday. Mr. Williams was quoted as saying:

"The announcement of the change in front was made at a conference to-day between Brayton Ives, President of the Metropolitan Trust Company, Hugh Kelly, President of the Oriental Bank, and S. S. Menken, counsel for the bank. A joint statement from the two Presidents was issued, in which it was said that payments under the Metropolitan Trust Company plan would begin soon."

Asked About Payments.

Gen. Ives was asked for a statement just a trifle more definite. "When will payments begin?" he was asked. "Don't know," was his answer. After the conference President Hugh Kelly was asked when payments would begin.

"We will be ready to begin Monday, at the Oriental Bank," he said, after some hesitation. "Will you begin then, or will it be necessary to wait a week, a month or a year for these same accounts to be gone over, balanced and verified?" he was asked.

"I do not know what plan will be followed," he said. "I am sure, however, that it will be announced Monday. I suspect that it will not take more than ten minutes—possibly five—to investigate each account, but there are 3,000 of them, and you can see what 3,000 times five minutes will mean. In all likelihood we will on Monday notify a certain number of depositors, going down in alphabetical list, to post the number of 20 or 25 accounts, to be present on a certain day and we will then begin payments, and continue them daily until they are completed."

"Nine Points in Law."

Lawyer Menken was asked if he expected the Attorney-General to appeal or in some way to attempt to block the latest move in the Oriental Bank matter. He said that the books, papers and assets of the Oriental Bank were now in the possession of the Metropolitan Trust Company, and would so remain, hinting that possession meant nine points in the law.

The Attorney-General's office was quickly informed that the Oriental Bank people had stolen a march upon it. Attorney-General Jackson was not at all surprised by this move, and Deputy Attorney-General W. F. Mackay said that he was not informed of the situation.

Here is the joint statement, issued by President Ives and Kelly: "The legal proceedings in connection with the much discussed agreement between the Metropolitan Trust Company and the Oriental Bank have apparently been ended. Yesterday the assets of the bank were transferred to the Trust Company under the direction of Clark Williams, Superintendent of Banks. The agreement as approved by Mr. Justice O'Gorman, and later by the Appellate Division, is the same agreement first announced by the two corporations."

"Arrangements have been begun for the payment of depositors of the bank so soon as the books are balanced and the accounts certified to. They will be paid by the Metropolitan Trust Company. The indebtedness to the Clearing House Association will be paid on or before Monday."

Mr. Williams was asked if he considered the Oriental assets now out of his jurisdiction. "Out," he said.

ROOSEVELT CONFERS ON PENDING LEGISLATION.

WASHINGTON, March 21.—An important conference was held at the White House to-day, the President having summoned there Senator Aldrich and Representatives Payne, Daigelt and Hepburn for the purpose of consulting as to the legislative programme when it is understood, includes measures amendatory of the employers' liability act; the bill modifying the power of injunction, the Aldrich finance bill; the Hepburn proposition to amend the Sherman anti-trust law; and the proposition to prosecute a tariff inquiry during the recess of Congress.

do theirs. He would not do it if he could. Think of the illicit unions unblest by marriage. If there is a child, the mother cares for it, works for it, braves the world for it, though people sneer because it has no father. The man walks away!"

Again the Speaker's vivid pantomime illustrated his point. He took several steps away from where we were standing, and when he came back it was to talk of personal things. He spoke of Horace Greeley, whom, he said, he revered most of all America's great men, and in the course of his remarks made the significant statement:

"And then he got the Presidential bee. God pity the man who gets that bee! It is well-nigh fatal. He can't sleep o' nights!"

Yet outside, men stalked the corridors of the House wearing Cannon buttons. Little groups of politicians whispered of Cannon as Secretary Taft's most formidable rival. But Uncle Joe did not look as if the bee's buzzing had cost him any sleep.

Serene, smiling, fresh as the carnation in his buttonhole, this wonderful man went back to preside over the semi-circle of Solons that make our laws.

from Baltimore, and the probable time of her return. Senator Elkins, his daughter and the Duke left in the automobile on their return at 4 P. M. yesterday, and the Duke took a train for New York as soon as they reached Washington.

Even the closest friends of the Duke did not know during the day where he had gone, and the impression was that he had come to New York. His mysterious disappearance came color to the rumor that the engagement, if one had existed, had been broken off.

The Duke had a momentary leave from his ship. The most plausible reason for his departure, in view of late reports from Rome that every obstacle to the union had been overcome, is that he is going back to report on his ship and after looking after such details as may be necessary toward arrangements for the wedding, will return to America.

King Not Opposed.

It is said there was never any opposition on the part of King Victor to the match, and that he has acquiesced all along in the betrothal. The talk of "doh" has seemingly occasioned more embarrassment to the Duke and his supposed fiancée than anything else in connection with the many published reports of their affairs.

There was never any desire or probability, it is said, of a settlement jointly on the Duke and his bride. Should there be a "doh" of $2,000,000, or any other sum, it will be settled solely on the bride. But there has never been any discussion whatever, friends of the Duke and the Elkins family.

It is the custom in Italy in such alliances for the bride to bring her husband a "doh," but not necessarily in money. It may be in art treasures, one piece, or property of any other kind.

That the Duke has won admiration by his happy perspicacity is freely admitted in Washington society. It is the general belief among his friends that the Duke will return after the London season, and that the wedding will take place next month. While Senator Elkins is said not to be enthusiastic about foreign marriages, where his daughter's happiness was at stake his objections would be waived, and in addition he will make a suitable settlement on her.

Besides Miss Katherine Elkins is a high-spirited girl, and usually has her own way. She is intelligent, brilliant and generous, and a great lover of horses and dogs. She is one of the most daring cross-country riders of the Chevy Chase and Virginia Hunt Clubs.

Miss Elkins is said to have made it quite clear to some of her intimates

FERRY CRASHES INTO BRIDGE; PANIC ABOARD

Many Long Island Theatre-Goers Sustain Sprains and Bruises.

BOAT'S BOW SMASHED.

Passengers Shaken from Seats and Thrown Against Rails and Posts.

Many residents of Jamaica, Corona, Flushing and other Long Island towns are nursing sprains, bruises and wrenches to-day as results of an accident that happened while one of the after-theatre Thirty-fourth street ferry-boats was going into the slip at Long Island City last night.

The boat was so crowded that, notwithstanding the chilliness of the night, the decks were packed with men and women, a majority of them in evening dress. These were jolted and thrown around like pins in a box when the bow of the boat came into violent collision with the big bridge of the slip.

The collision was caused by a misunderstanding of the signal from the pilot by the engineer, and the first passengers knew of it was a tearing, crashing sound and the violent shock. The bow of the boat was stove in and the bridge was put entirely out of commission.

The passengers in the cabin were only shaken out of their seats, but those on the decks were thrown against each other, the posts, rails and the iron latticed gate, while women screamed and grabbed at anything in sight. The panic was quieted by the boat's officers, and the frightened passengers landed on the Long Island shore over an improvised gangplank.

Among the passengers who were hurt were Miss Catherine Guider, eighteen years old, of No. 86 Evergreen avenue, Corona, and James Cowan, twenty-seven years old, of No. 1107 Manhattan avenue.

ACCUSER SHOTS MAN

WHEN COURT ACQUITS HIM.

KANE, Pa., March 21.—Charles Roebuck, twenty-three years old, shot William Charinski, aged thirty, and then fired a bullet through his own head late last night. Both men will probably die.

Roebuck accused Charinski of taking money from him and had him arrested. The case was remitted for the lack of evidence and Roebuck, unattended, quarreled with Charinski and then used the revolver.

FATHER LEO'S SLAYER TO BE HANGED IN JULY.

DENVER, March 21.—In the Criminal Division of the District Court here to-day, Judge Greely W. Whitney denied the motion for a new trial for Giuseppe Alia, convicted of the murder of Father Leo Heinrichs, whom he shot to death in St. Elizabeth's Catholic Church this city Feb. 23, and sentenced him to be hanged during the week beginning July 12 next.

JUDGE BLACKLISTS JURY.

The jury in the County Court, Brooklyn, which returned a verdict yesterday acquitting George Holz of having assaulted Irene Fleishman, fourteen years old, was rebuked by Judge Fawcett.

"Jurymen" said the Court, "you are a disgrace to this community and to yourselves. I hope you have no mothers, wives, daughters or sisters to see you when you go home after behaving such a mean as this. His picture is in the 'Rogues' Gallery.' He has proved of his time against this child. I will never willingly accept any one of you as a juror again."

GEN. STOESSEL BEGINS HIS TEN YEARS' JAIL TERM

Hoped to the Last That Czar Would Grant Him Full Pardon—Prison Crowded.

ST. PETERSBURG, March 21.—Lieut.-Gen. Stoessel, who yesterday began to serve ten years in prison for cowardice and treason in surrendering Port Arthur to the Japanese, occupies a room in the fortress of St. Peter and St. Paul, adjoining that of Rear-Admiral Nebogatoff, who is serving a like sentence for surrender to the Japanese on the Sea of Japan. The room is about 20 feet square and overlooks a little garden, where the officers are permitted to promenade.

Stoessel's family has received permission to return to his cell. The officers of the fortress run a private mess for their own, and to this Gen. Stoessel has been admitted.

The general's transfer to the fortress yesterday was unexpected. He persisted until the very last in hoping that the Emperor would pardon him.

The fortress officials were not prepared for his reception. There was no room available, and to secure one they were forced to dispossess two officers who had served under Admiral Nebogatoff.

NEWSPAPER BOYCOTT ON

REICHSTAG SPREADING.

BERLIN, March 21.—Chancellor Von Buelow, in view of his approaching speech in the Reichstag on the foreign affairs of the Empire, is striving to find a way to affect a settlement of the difficulty between the newspaper reporters and Parliament. Two days ago the leader of the Centre party, Herr Groeber, called the newspaper men "swine" in open meeting because they had jeered at the remarks of a member of the House. The reporters decided not to send out a word of the Reichstag debates until apology and fullest retraction had been offered.

To-day they received assurances from practically every newspaper in Germany that no mention would be made of the Reichstag proceedings until satisfaction had been given. The foreign news agencies, including Havas and Reuter, and those published in Austria, Italy, London and St. Petersburg, have all joined in the movement to support the parliamentary reporters.

YOUR SOOR STOMACH IS CAUSING ALL THAT MISERY OF INDIGESTION.

The following tells how one 22 grain Triangle of Diapepsin will digest 3,000 grains of food and cure Stomach misery in five minutes.

Some people think they have Indigestion, others Catarrh of the Stomach, others Nervousness, Cancer or Dyspepsia, etc. Call it this if you will, but the real name for your trouble is Fermentation of what you eat, with only partial digestion. Everything you eat turns to either Acid, Stomach gas or Stomach poison, which weakens the digestive organs, causing a lack of gastric juice. Your food sours, is only half digested, and you become affected with loss of appetite, pressure and fullness after eating, burning sensation, a feeling of vomiting, heartburn, water brash and tenderness in the pit of the stomach, slimy tongue, bad taste in the mouth, constipation, nausea, belching of gas, dizziness, sick headaches, intestinal griping, mental depression and many other common symptoms.

You can cure all this by not eating, by not putting any food in your stomach to ferment; but how about the nourishment needed to sustain your bodily strength? If you are a

Your stomach will be as good as any after you stop this fermentation of everything you eat—this formation of Stomach Gas. After a few days' use of Diapepsin your Stomach will again be in good working order, your intestines will be clean and fresh, and you will have no use for laxatives or liver regulators.

Pape's Diapepsin is not a secret concoction or patent medicine, as the complete formula is plainly printed on each case. It is a prescription built upon a thoroughly scientific principle, which will prove true to any stomach sufferer within five minutes after taking the first Triangle.

The cure for the blues—Cascarets.

A million boxes go out every month to carry a world of sunshine.

Are you getting your share?

Cascarets act as a bowel tonic, not as an irritant.

They are vegetable. Their action is natural. Their effect is the same as the effect of some foods.

They are gentle; no griping.

They are pleasant; no dreading.

They are convenient; no waiting.

One old way was castor oil.

The effect was to grease the bowels, and for a single day. Oil never causes the bowel muscles to act.

Other ways were pills, salts and cathartics. The effect was the same as pepper has in the nostrils. They flooded the bowels with fluid.

Those fluids were digestive juices. And the waste today means a lack tomorrow.

We knew that the method was wrong. That the after-effects only weakened the bowels.

But we had no gentle laxatives in the old days. So we waited as long as we could, then took a big dose of physic.

The method today is to take one Cascaret at a time—just as soon as you need it. Then the bowels are always clean.

Cascarets are candy tablets. They are sold by all druggists, but never in bulk. Be sure you get the genuine, with CCC on every tablet. The price is 50c, 25c and
